

British Epigraphy Society Spring Meeting programme.

“Epigraphy and Frontiers”

Great North Museum: Hancock, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, 18 May 2019

10am: Registration and coffee (provided)

10.30: Franco Luciani (Newcastle): “On the margins of civic territories in Roman Italy: defining, shifting and locating boundaries”

11.15: Sam Turner (Newcastle): “Early medieval frontiers”

12.00: Roger Tomlin (Oxford): “Recent finds of tablets from Vindolanda”

12.45-14.00: LUNCH (not provided)

14.00: Tour of GNM inscriptions led by Roger Tomlin

15.30: Ilaria Bultrighini (ICS, London): “Boundaries in the Athenian countryside: the evidence from old and new rock-cut inscriptions”

16.00: Ted Kaizer (Durham): “The epigraphy of Dura-Europos”

16.45: Anne Elizabeth Redgate (Newcastle): “Epigraphy in tenth- and eleventh-century Armenia: inscriptions as bridges and boundaries”

17.30: Alan Beale (Newcastle): Short report – “Teaching Epigraphy at the Great North Museum”

18.00: Drinks & Poster session in the School of History, Classics & Archaeology (Armstrong Building 2.49)

20.00: Dinner at Pani's, 61-65 High Bridge, Newcastle Upon Tyne, NE1 6BX.

For any queries, please contact Simon Corcoran (Newcastle): simon.corcoran@ncl.ac.uk