

British Epigraphy Society

Spring Meeting 2017
Cambridge, 6 May

Programme

11.00-12.30 CREWS

Presentation from members of the Cambridge Project CREWS (Contexts of and Relations between Early Writing Systems)

12.30-2.00 Break

Lunch can be purchased individually at the local pub on the river!

2.00 Nicholas Zair

Old-fashioned spelling in imperial Latin inscriptions

2.45 Olivia Elder

ABCA: Script and language games in the Pompeian graffiti

3.30 Break

4.00 New and noteworthy

James Clackson

A new Arcadian Lex Sacra

Benet Salway

Two neo-Punic inscriptions from Roman Tripolitania reported by Professor Abdulhafid Elmayer

* The meeting is free of charge. Anyone planning to attend should e-mail the Society's Honorary Secretary: u.roth@ed.ac.uk.

Location:

The meeting will take place in Room G.21, Faculty of Classics, Sidgwick Avenue, Cambridge CB3 9DA. For maps and directions, see www.classics.cam.ac.uk.