PROGRAMME

 The precise times for the programme and lectures on both days will be announced shortly on our website**

The BES Spring Meeting 2018 will take place in the eternal city - Rome! - on 5 May 2018. The meeting is organised by BES member Prof. Silvia Orlandi (La Sapienza, Rome) and will take place in the Museo Nazionale Romano (Terme di Diocleziano). In addition to papers and poster presentations, there will be a guided tour for all participants on 5 May of the epigraphic collection in the Museo Nazionale Romano, by Dr Carlotta Caruso, as well as a presentation of the mobile app enabling the visual recognition of the inscriptions displayed in the museum, by Dr Giuseppe Amato. The meeting is preceded by a public lecture on the evening of 4 May by Prof. Filippo Coarelli on 'Roman Topography and Military Diplomas' (in Palazzo Altemps).

Friday, 4 May 2018

Palazzo Altemps, Piazza di Sant'Apollinare, 46

Prof. Filippo Coarelli: 'Roman Topography and Military Diplomas'.

Saturday, 5 May 2018

Museo Nazionale Romano, Terme di Diocleziano, Viale Enrico de Nicola, 76

Dr Daniele Maras: The Origin of the Latin Alphabet: Greek Letters with Etruscan Rules

Dr Francesca Bigi: 'Placing Inscriptions in Context: the Interactive Plan of Lepcis Magna'

Prof. Marco Maiuro: 'The New lex portorii Lyciae'

Prof. Gianfranco Agosti: 'Verse Inscriptions and Late Antique Society. What Difference Did Christianity Make?'

Dr Flavia Frauzel: 'Sigismu(n)dus and the Ostrogoths in Italy. Data from Epigraphy'

The Society is very grateful to the Museo Nazionale Romano, and its Director, Dr Daniela Porro, for generously supporting the meeting through hosting it on their premises.

The British Epigraphy Society exists to promote the study of inscriptions, texts and historical documents in Greek, Latin and other languages, and was established at a meeting in London on 16 November 1996 as an independent 'chapter' of the Association Internationale d'Epigraphie Grecque et Latine (A.I.E.G.L.). It is a registered charity (no. 1090249).
